Press and 2nd Front

THOSE British newspapers which at one time were for Franco, praised Hitler, boomed Mussolini and applauded the Anglo-German Fellowship, the Nazi organization among Big Business men in Britain, are today the very papers which oppose not only the opening of a 2nd Front now, but a public discussion of it. As IN FACT reported last week, Bevan's Tribune calls the London Telegraph a defeatist. The Tribune also ran a cartoon of Hitler hanging civilians while in a London club the Camrose press, Harmsworth press and Lady Astor—the Astor family controls the world-famous London Times and other papers—are saying "The 2nd Front is desirable, old boy—but hardly urgent." The main Harmsworth paper is Daily Mail, chief pro-Mussolini-Hitler-Franco sheet in Britain at various times.

There is mounting evidence that the American press is handling the 2nd Front story with the same tactics it uses to make people forget gov't disclosures of treasonable acts, Fascist plottings, and anti-American activities by Aluminum Corp, General Electric, Standard Oil and other advertisers, and Big Business in general. Great mass meetings have been played down. Here is one good example: NY Industrial Council representing 500,000 held rally in Madison Sq park (July 22) which drew 60,000 and heard speeches by notables. But Hearst's Mirror headline was "Mead launches drive against old-line Dems," making political statement of political candidate main part of story.

NYTimes (Sept 20) devoted "Topics of the Times" column to attack on 2nd Front now. It was written by Simeon Strunsky, who has devoted 25 years to attacking and smearing Russia. Paradoxically enough, adjoining 3 columns were devoted to a letter from Thomas Lamont (of the House of Morgan, which once sold Tsarist bonds) which is the greatest shout of praise for Soviets ever to appear in notorious anti-Soviet paper.

500 Writers Act

IN America as in England working people are all-out for 2nd Front. Our newspapers suppress or bury reports of labor conventions, meetings, resolutions, protests, demands for 2nd Front now. United Auto Workers, with more than 600,000 members, wants 2nd Front now, writes Sec'y-Treas Geo Addes (current issue union's official paper): "Only isolationists, fifth columnists, and those not particular which side is victorious, question the urgent need for a 2nd Front."

League of American Writers asked leading authors to sign appeal to Roosevelt for immediate attack on Hitler. Of 500 writers who signed, at least 50 are

Move to Unite US Clergy to Save Rev Gerald Winrod... p. 1

Donald Day, News Faker, Joins Fascists Officially... p. 3

THE U S GOVERNMENT will soon try the Rev Gerald B Winrod for sedition. It will decide whether or not Winrod in publishing the propaganda issued in Erfurth and Berlin and spread among several hundred thousand persons by the "Jayhawk Fuehrer" of Wichita, Kansas, was giving aid and comfort to the enemy, was being a traitor to America. That Winrod has preached for Hitler and for Fascist ideas and published more Fascist propaganda than any other of the 28 indicted for sedition has been established as a fact by measurement. The trial will decide whether in addition to spreading Fascism Winrod committed the crime of sedition.

An organization calling itself the Committee for the Preservation of Christ's Cause in America is sending an appeal to every Protestant preacher and every Catholic priest in the country enlisting aid for Winrod. With the letter goes a broadside quoting Senator Reynolds, chairman of the Senate Military Affairs Committee and organizer of the American Fascist Vindicators, the Chicago Tribune, and the Rev Bob Shuler of Trinity Methodist Church, Los Angeles, in favor of Winrod. Here are extracts from the broadside:

A Message to the Clergy of America

"Do not wound Christ's Cause through political persecution."

The Committee for the Preservation of Christ's Cause in America has investigated charges made against the well-known preacher and evangelist Gerald B Winrod D D, and finds...

That newsstand publications have cast evil reflections upon the Protestant and Catholic clergy...

That on June 30 1939 the Hon R R Reynolds... placed one of Dr Winrod's messages on war in the Congressional Record...

That Dr Winrod has been a faithful public servant of the Lord Jesus Christ for 22 years and despite persecution, misrepresentation and vilification, enjoys the confidence of all members of the clergy who know him personally, and occupies a warm place in the affections of Christians numbering into the millions who have attended his great interdenominational meetings and otherwise shared the spiritual blessings of his ministry...

That at a time when national unity is the great need of the country, it is a mistake to risk chilling the ardor of a large section of our population who know, love and respect Dr Winrod as a Preacher of the Gospel and loyal Christian patriot...

Prayers are ascending for Dr Winrod everywhere. Many Churches are keeping a constant vigil on his behalf... Our Committee hereby suggests that pastors of all denominations shall make his matter a subject of public discussion and prayer." (Then follows a request for money, which in turn is followed by a request to bring pressure on Representatives and Senators in Winrod's behalf.)

The letter from Rev Bob Shuler, reproduced, declares America faces "curtailment of free speech in this country, and especially the effort that is being made to convict men of treason simply because they attack the New Deal. God only knows what is ahead of us... No telling what will happen to us, but it is happening to men all over the world, and as totalitarianism comes to power you may look for the lightning to strike" (Signed Bob Shuler; dated Aug 6, 1942; on Trinity Methodist Church paper).

The accompanying letter, sent to all clergymen, signed by (Rev) Harvey H Springer of Englewood, Colorado, says in part:

The issue involved is not what our Committee believes to be false charges against a man; in reality it is a blow at the Cause of Jesus Christ. War has been declared. Others of us who also stand for the doctrinal statement of the Apostle's Creed may be the next to follow. The issue is the same today as it was in the days of our Lord, when He was charged with sedition...

"Politicians in Washington no doubt think that such terroristic tactics will make votes for them in the election this Fall..."

"If the foundations of falsehood can be started by an anti-God, anti-Christ, anti-Home, anti-Government group of Communists and be magnified over and over again by Walter Winchell, 'Life,' 'Liberty,' and other publications, against such fine Christian people like Dr Gerald B Winrod Mrs Elizabeth Dilling, to build up false ideas, who knows but you and I may be next? Other Protestants, other Catholics may be slated for destruction tomorrow. It is bad business to allow anybody to play politics with Christian leaders and the Christian faith. Surely the God of Heaven, Who has called us to preach, and calls us Ministers the 'apples of His eye,' shall vindicate His servants. . . . The hour for action has come. . . . Pray. . . . This call is being sent to all the Ministers of America. . . .

The American government, fighting the deadliest enemy in its history, charges that Winrod republished the Nazi propaganda issued in Germany for the purpose of spreading hatred and division in this country, so as to soften up the people and make possible the work of the Nazi Fifth Column. No one today can publish the evidence the FBI has collected against Winrod, but in a book published this week the following document appears:

WORLD-SERVICE (Welt Dienst) Erfurth (Germany) May 25 1939
Amityville, Long Island, U S A
Dear Miss Staub . . .

You should try to get some enlightening American news and papers, as 'Social Justice' by Father Coughlin, 'Defender' by Rev Winrod, Kansas. . . .

Say the authors: "This propaganda material . . . reached the U S public through such homespun publications as Father Charles E Coughlin's Social Justice; Wm Dudley Pelley's Liberator; Rev Gerald Winrod's Defender; Wm Kullgren's Beacon Light; and many other pro-Axis, anti-Semitic newspapers, magazines and newsletters. That this anti-Semitic propaganda was making headway in America was revealed as early as 1936 when the Senate Black Committee, investigating lobbying activities, uncovered the subversive work of an organization called Sentinels of the Republic." (From the important book "Sabotage!" by Michael Sayers and Albert E Kahn, Harpers, $2.50; page 143.)

Winrod's anti-Semitism dates from 1935 when he visited Nazi Germany. Winrod denies that Nazi agents paid for the trip; but he does not deny his published works which became anti-Semitic on the day he returned from Germany. Previously he had been merely anti-Catholic. Before switching to a better-paying hate, Winrod had frequently denounced the Catholic Church as the "harlot woman of the Bible." He sneered in his sermons at the Pope, calling him "Mr Pius of Vatican City." In Oct 1937 in his Defender Winrod attacked the Federal Council of Church of Christ, leading Protestant body, as "Communist."

Exposed as Pro-Hitler by Wife

Winrod's Naziism also figures in the legal documents in the suit of Hearst vs Friday. (Text published in IN FACT, Aug 4 and 11, 1941.) In accusing Hearst of anti-Semitism and Naziism, Friday magazine presented the evidence that a Hearst representative, "Major" A Cloyd Gill, had collaborated with native Fascist preachers. Gill more recently collaborated with Joseph Kamp of New Haven, Conn, whose Constitutional Educational League is also charged with being part of the sedition activities of the 28 persons indicted recently, including Winrod and Dilling. In 1936 a meeting was held in Asheville which Gill and the Rev Ralph Noller attempted to make 100% anti-Semitic, pro-Fascist. This caused a split. Those who favored the Nazi ideology held a separate meeting devoted entirely to Jew-baiting. Among the participants: Rev Dr Charles Vaughn of Los Angeles, Rev C G Campbell of Indianapolis, and Winrod. At the time it was reported that this meeting was "frankly and unabashedly Hitlerite."

Other preachers who have cooperated with Winrod: Rev Louis Richard Patmont of Berkeley; Rev Oswald J Smith of Toronto, Rev Geo D Blomgren of Chicago, who made the trip to Germany with Winrod, Rev Harry H Hodge of Beaumont, Texas, friend of Martin Dies. One of the accusations against Dies for failure to expose native Fascists is the fact that he suddenly dropped an investigation of Winrod, apparently under pressure of mutual friends.

Although Winrod denies the Nazis arranged his trip to Berlin, that is exactly the charge made by Mrs Winrod. Described as "a deeply spiritual woman, a profound Bible student and teacher, who differed with her husband on strictly scriptural grounds," Mrs Winrod was granted a separation after Winrod returned from Germany and introduced Nazi teaching in the home. She testified:

"My husband . . . was always, in every sermon, preaching the gospel when all the time it was propaganda for Hitler and against our government, absolutely. Every evening in the home by the radio, the children were taught that everything that Hitler did was right and that everything England and France did was wrong. I did not want to be a part of that, whatsoever. . . . We were under continual strain on account of my husband saying he was to be nominal head of the country when the revolution came, and that he wanted to take me to a secret hideout so that I would be protected when the Government should close in on him." (The hideout was in Wyoming; the court awarded Mrs Winrod $5,000, home and furnishings, custody of the children, $45 a month. The only issue in the case was Winrod's Hitlerism.)

topnotchers, newsworthy. But the hush-hush system prevails in the American press. Although the story was worth a column, the League's clipping bureau, which scans every newspaper in the country, was able to find it in only three commercial papers: a small item in the NYTimes, a mention in the World-Telegram, and an editorial in the Dayton News,—attacking the League for demanding a 2nd Front now.

At same time Dashiell Hammett, president of League of American Writers, author of "Thin Man" stories, enlisted as a private. Here are a few of the 500 writers who joined in 2nd Front appeal to FDR—most of these names are news at any time, but press didn't let readers know these distinguished Americans were demanding action now.

Robert Hillyer (Pulitzer Prize poet), Julia Peterkin (Pulitzer Prize novelist), Maud Howe Elliott (Pulitzer Prize biographer), Lion Feuchtwanger, Prof. Mary Ellen Chase, Matthew Josephson (Guggenheim Fellow), Arthur Garfield Hays, Lillian Hellman, Theodore Dreiser, Alfred Kreymborg (President of the Poetry Society of America), Countee Cullen, August Derleth, Countess Felicia Gizycka (daughter of Cissy Patterson), Arna Bontemps, Prof. Henry Pratt Fairchild, John Selby (winner All Nations Contest for Novels), Howard Fast, Sidney Greenbie, Prof. Pitirim A. Sorokin (former member of the Kerensky Government, banished from the Soviet Union in 1922), Vicki Baum, Albert Edward Wiggam, Olin Downes, Edna Worthley Underwood (Silver Medal, France, 1927), Walter D Edmonds, Norman Rosten (Guggenheim Fellow), Prof. Robert H Lowie, Hugh Lofting (Newbury Prize), Jesse Stuart (Guggenheim Fellow), Dr John A Kingsbury, Gertrude Diamant (September 1942 Book-of-the-Month Club author), David Pinski, Isidor Schneider (Guggenheim Fellow) Prof Norman Holmes Pearson, Alvah Bessie (Guggenheim Fellow, veteran of the Abraham Lincoln Brigade in Loyalist Spain), F O Matthiessen, Dr Ambrose Domini (Dante Prize, Harvard), Edward Lasker, Joy Davidman (Yale Prize for Poetry) and Zora Neale Hurston.

Who Stole Your Tires?

WHY did U S gov't officials refuse to accept Russia's offer to reveal secrets of synthetic rubber last February? (One report has a previous offer from Russia in Oct 1941). If U S had started with Soviet grain alcohol patents last Feb all of us would have new tires this year. Baruch committee said offer was "kicked around" but failed to name men who sabotaged vital war project. One likely reason is the same which caused French generals to stop Air Minister Cot's parachute troop training. Cot told IN FACT's editor French generals, reactionary pro-fascist officials refused to accept any military invention of Russians because they were "reds." So we get no "red" rubber. For the same reason French cabinet which succeeded Popular Front (and which lost the war to Hitler later) refused to adopt Cot's stuka-bombing plan, saying it was Bolshevik system. (In fact it was American, invented at Curtiss-Wright, betrayed for money to Hitler—documentary proof, IN FACT, Dec 8 1941.)

Columnist Dorothy Thompson says:

"My guess is that our politicians pressed by interested groups, did not accept it ('red' rubber) because Russia is a Socialist state, and because the offer was made to the whole people of the U S and not to an industry."

I F Stone (Nation correspondent, author of "Business As Usual" which documents the treason of American corporation in this war) goes further: he accuses Baruch report of failure to blame Standard Oil; declares that Goodrich which has best rubber plan is penalized for opposing Standard; concludes that rubber remains in Standard-Mellon-duPont hands as monopoly for after war.

People's Lobby, Benjamin Marsh sec'y, demands Dep't of Justice investigate persons guilty of sabotaging Russian offer. Marsh declares failure was not inexplicable, "but just damnable moral treason." Lobby declares W L Clayton, cotton broker who is Jesse Jones' ass't Sec'y of Commerce, and Geo Hill, president of RFC's Defense Supply Corp, received Soviet offer. Jesse Jones also should be questioned.

Re: Labor Press

ST LOUIS Labor Tribune, AFL publication, is surveying the situation for changing from weekly to a daily. Chrysler auto workers, Detroit, are asking union locals to subscribe funds for a paper to tell public truth about auto labor situation which no Detroit newspaper is doing. Statement signed by regional directors Frankenstein and Bishop declares: "The Detroit newspapers do not give the public a correct picture of the problems existing in our plants due to the war, and the attitudes of managements. The newspapers and the Manufacturers' Ass'n (NAM) have been carrying on attacks on labor throughout the country, putting labor on the defensive and threatening anti-labor legislation. . . . Many locals have been asking that a regional paper be published. . . . We greet the initiative. . . and urge all locals to give all possible support to the Committee: Wm Owen, De Soto; Philip Lutjen, pres Local 47; Sam Sweet, Plymouth local."

Lost: A Year

C E WILSON, president of General Motors, recently gave Washington correspondents a party. Wilson was asked by Walter Lippman, syndicated columnist, what would have happened to America's defense and war program if big industry, such as General Motors, had started conversion (as advocated by labor unions) a year earlier.

Wilson: "We would have been a year ahead."

Lippmann: "Isn't that enough to hang you with?"

AMERICA'S LEADING NEWS FAKER JOINS FASCISTS

THE FACT that Donald Day, correspondent for the Chicago Tribune press service for more than 20 years has joined the Finnish army to fight against Russia is of no importance. The important fact behind the news is that Donald Day faked the news for more than 20 years and that Colonel McCormick knew that Day lied and printed his lies because he liked those lies.

In the entire history of American journalism there is no greater example of pure unashamed falsehood handed out to fool all the people over a long period of years, than the treatment of the news about Russia.

The editor of the New York Times, Charles Merz, and the noted columnist Walter Lippmann on Aug 4 1920 published a supplement to the liberal weekly, The New Republic, giving the history of many of the lies from 1917 to 1920 concerning Russia. They had been preceded by a pamphlet entitled "Facts and Fabrications about Soviet Russia" by Evans Clark, now director of the Twentieth Century Fund, co-founder of the Council for Democracy and husband of Freda Kirchwey, editor of The Nation. In "The Facts Are . . ." the editor of IN FACT lists some of the thousands of fake news items of the Russo-Finnish war. These three documented exposures prove the U. S. press (with so few exceptions that no impression was made on the public) lied about Russia from 1917 onward, and that the most persistent liar of all was Donald Day of the Chicago Tribune.

Case History of America's Leading Newspaper Liar

On Dec 21 1919 the SS Buford, so-called "Soviet Ark," prepared to sail to Russia with 249 men and women the U S was deporting for being reds. Most notable passengers were Emma Goldman and Alexander Berkman, anarchists. The party entered Russia via the Finnish border. At this time no newspaper man was permitted to enter Russia, which was in the midst of civil wars, the White generals, subsidized by British, American and other money and fed by Herbert Hoover, still attempting to overthrow the Soviets.

At this time Donald Day was a Hearst reporter. Whether or not he was a "red" this writer cannot say, although Day has repeatedly claimed that he married one of the Communist deportees because (1) he was in love with her, and (2) because he was of the same political view and (3) because he wanted to get into Soviet Russia somehow and get a scoop story for Mr Hearst. Eventually it became known throughout the Tribune service that Day had made a marriage with a deportee merely as a journalistic stunt, and Day did not deny it. In fact, he boasted that to get a story for Hearst he had married Miss . . . . (IN FACT of course will not disclose her name).

The Soviet police examined all the Buford passengers just the same way the FBI recently examined the Gripsholm passengers, and despite every one of them protesting he or she was pro-Soviet, several were detained, and one—who had not been on the Ark but who had married a passenger—was not permitted to enter Russia at all. That man was Donald Day.

For several months he stayed in Riga, protesting his friendship for the Soviets, but he got no visa. Finally Mr Hearst, who did not get the planned scoop, fired Mr Day, and Mr Day was taken on by the newly-formed Chicago Tribune press service to write anti-Russian stories. Then Day would send out propaganda and plain lies; after which he would appear at the Russian consulate with copies of his fakes and try to make a deal, saying that if he were permitted to enter Russia he would write the truth, but so long as he was being denied a visa, he would continue to send lies. This was no secret. Day boasted to Floyd Gibbons, director of the Tribune service, of his one-man war against Russia, and his blackmail scheme for getting a visa.

At about this time also the London Daily Mail (run by Lord Northcliffe, later by Lord Rothermere) offered Day a pound ($4.86) a story provided the stories attacked Russia. No factual, objective or fair story was wanted; every such story was refused, whereas every falsehood was printed. Day was able to fake about three stories a week for the Daily Mail, some so crude that he could not send them to Chicago.

Having been unable to get into Russia via marriage, Day got a divorce and married a White, an anti-Soviet, Russian woman.

The fact that Floyd Gibbons informed Col McCormick that Day was sending nothing but fake stories did not bother the Tribune owner. Another Tribune man who had succeeded in getting to Moscow early in 1920 and who had returned with a series of stories in favor of the new regime, was ordered to write the opposite of what he believed true. This man tried to settle the controversy by writing nothing, but this was not enough; he got orders to write against Russia or lose his job. Being married and having children and no other means of support, this man wrote the fake articles the Tribune ordered. (When last heard of this colleague was press agent for a national distillery.)

From 1920 until Pearl Harbor Tribune employees, readers, others, pointed out to McCormick that the Day stories were lies. They also pointed out the same fact to Capt Patterson of the NYDaily News. However, the multi-millionaires who run these papers did nothing about this fakery.

In 1939 the University of Chicago Round Table went into the subject of fake news from the Russo-Finnish conflict. This forum was broadcast. One speaker gave as an illustration of fake news the story headlined in the press as "FINNS

CUT MURMANSK RAILROAD." How did the American press come to print this falsehood? It was shown that months earlier Donald Day had faked this story. He had sent it to the Tribune, which printed it. The Chicago correspondent of a Copenhagen paper picked it up, sent it back to Denmark. Whereupon the American correspondents in Copenhagen, crediting it to a reliable Danish newspaper, recabled the story to all U S papers. This fake in all its forms was used as an illustration in the U of Chi pamphlet of this forum. But Day continued to fake, and the Tribune and NYDN continued to print fakes.

$10,000 Says Day Lied in Chi Trib Story

The Chicago Tribune is comparable only to certain Hearst newspapers in the number and maliciousness of its printed lies. In IN FACT Nov 24 1941 some of the Chi Trib worst lies were briefly mentioned. One of the Tribune's falsified stories has made a record in American journalism because rewards of $10,000 were posted as a challenge to its veracity.

The story was written by Donald Day from Riga. It was used by McCormick in the 1936 campaign in an attempt to defeat Roosevelt for reelection by pinning the same red label on him which the National Ass'n of Manufacturers tries to pin on labor unions, and which Hitler made his No 1 propaganda method in lining up the Italian-Japanese-Nazi axis. The fake Day story was headlined in the Tribune as follows: "MOSCOW ORDERS REDS IN U S TO BACK ROOSEVELT."

In past history presidents have not often called a newspaper a falsifier and less often used the word liar, but when Hearst repeated the Day story under a still more lying headline, President Roosevelt issued one of his numerous statements branding a newspaper or a news service untruthful. (The most important instance was Roosevelt's branding Roy Howard's United Press a liar; the President also called a NYTimes story of a meeting with dictators at sea a falsehood; and on a dozen occasions he has declared that the American press falsifies the news against labor and labor unions.)

The Chicago Times not only called the Chi Trib story of Aug 8 by Donald Day a lie but put up $5,000 as a challenge to the Tribune to document the Day story or retract it. Since this was one of the almost daily Day frauds, the Tribune had no proof. But, not having ever respected the code of ethics of the journalistic profession, although Col McCormick is head of the Freedom of the Press Committee of the American Newspaper Publishers Ass'n, the Tribune just kept quiet and did not in this (or any other) case apologize for its daily fooling of the people of Chicago and the Middle West.

The Day lie was picked up by the Republican State Committee of Wisconsin. The state was flooded with a reprint circular. Whereupon LaFollette's Progressive also posted $5,000, challenging Chairman Samp to prove the story or admit it was using a lie. The $10,000 was never collected.

Mutual Broadcasting Co must share with Col McCormick and Capt Patterson some of the responsibility for the spreading of falsehood throughout America. Although Donald Day was not a frequent broadcaster over Mutual (WOR in NYC, WGN in Chi, etc) whenever he did speak he repeated many of the lies he had sent the Tribune, reaching a far greater audience. For example (on Sunday night, Aug 3 1941) Day was put on for a fifteen-minute attack on Russia. He used the phrase "wipe them off the map"; he said that Finland was "a Christian country fighting atheistic Russia," and he asked the sympathy of American business men because "Finland purchases many things in the U S." This and other broadcasts were a compound of violent abuse of Russia, fake stories of Russian events, and propaganda for Finland, without any mention of Finland being in the hands of the same Fascists which invited the Germans to cooperate with them in 1918 and the Nazis two decades later.
